My "Indomitable Person" title got changed right away.
But, to be exact, it's a Martial Competition Association.

The Maintenance finally ended. Second half of "Faeries' Gala" has started.
Wait, what?
What is this? This is news to me

Title: Faeries Whisperer
This title is given to people who are completely liked by the faeries. This title will be used and cannot be removed. Removal condition: participate in PVP during the event.
Un-less ...
Hey, that...

The faeries shoot their watery eyes in my direction

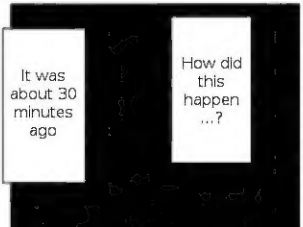
Eh...? How did you know what I wanted to talk about?
Well ...

Oh, I've no problem hearing you.
Oy~ Earth can you hear me? It's me Rona

The next day

Is that so, I was wondering if we can have a short discussion ?
About your Faerie's <Food> right?

(Item name) Fried Rabbit Meat
Rating 7 It's convenient to earn money with it since it's the store's flagship product
It feels like I'm running a Frying Specialty shop right now



It was about 30 minutes ago
How did this happen ...?

Because it is the same request continuously being asked by players right now!!

Do you have any food for faeries?
Excuse me
妖精たろし
I don't have the guts to go to the hunting grounds since "Faeries Cajoler"'s notoriety need to be fixed first. When I was reviewing the arrangement at the food stall...
Hm
Well for now, let's try the Rabbit-horn's Warmwater Steak
妖精たろし
It looks cute, so I wanted to help somehow
Ban hasn't eaten anything until now. He has been showing a dissatisfied reaction since after the update.
妖精たろし
Oh

Why?!!
How is "Faerie Whisperer" related?
As expect of the "Faerie Whisperer" ...!!

What can cheap and satisfying !?
Alright
Although it's good if he finishes it
I wonder if I'm going to need a paper fan liked those in comedy
Can you increase the level of Tackle and Magic attack?
It'd help me very much
Should I... fry it?
It must be connected ...
I expect it to eat four times...
Okay !!
25 gold for 4 pieces, the profit might be small but it's sure to help people...!!
In this game, the marinating time is shortened the more seasoning is used in the marinating
Using seasoning takes little work, so time isn't a factor.
Um. Hold on.
Ah
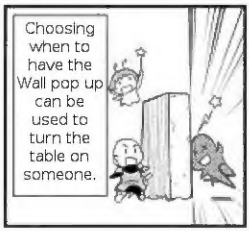
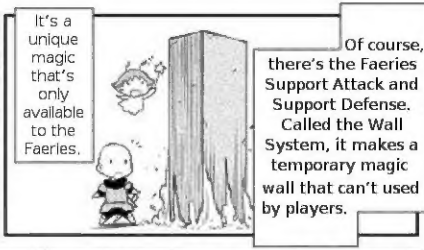
How about it...? but the soysauce reduces the cost if I buy it in bulk
Salt and Pepper increase the cost,

It's simple and cheap Food for faeries to go...! Thanks for the advertisement <3
We arrive at the present
Since I've got great reviews, I'm in the middle of a food rush
Eep
help....
Why is this happening to me?!!
Don't yell and give it to me already
I'm also hungry

Lately, people have become more and more serious about PVP
Cheap materials arrived to the hands of cooks so they could devise a system to mass-produce the Faerie food
With the cooperation of many cooks, it has been found that Faeries are willing to eat the food if it has a rating of 6 or more.
The requests for Faerie food started to calm down over the next few days
That being the case, it's now necessary to be able to judge if it's better to avoid an attack with reduced power or to confront it directly.
With the Offset System when going against magic, you attack with a sword. Inversely, when going against a sword, you hit them magic attacks.
That's to say, that both Guard skill and Evasion Skills have made break-throughs in battles
Victory and Defeat had been decided by who had the highest attack power in PVP until recently
The audience can now enjoy the battle that's only been seen in fiction.
That's only one part of the skills.

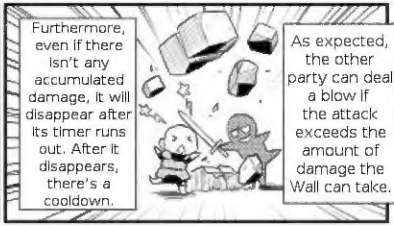


Choosing when to have the Wall pop up can be used to turn the table on someone.

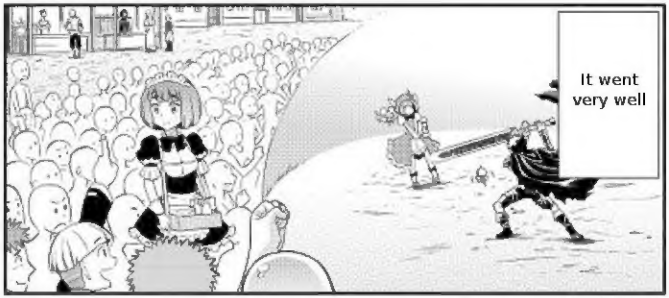


It's a unique magic that's only available to the Faeries.
Of course, there's the Faeries Support Attack and Support Defense. Called the Wall System, it makes a temporary magic wall that can't used by players.

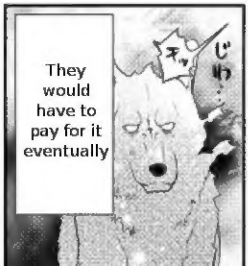
Depending on the situation, the Faeries' desire, communication and relationship with its owner can be tested. Spectacular PVP are also available on the official website.



Furthermore, even if there isn't any accumulated damage, it will disappear after its timer runs out. After it disappears, there's a cooldown.
As expected, the other party can deal a blow if the attack exceeds the amount of damage the Wall can take.



It went very well



They would have to pay for it eventually

Some people treat their Faerie very harshly by making them work too hard
But not all players went with the flow

……

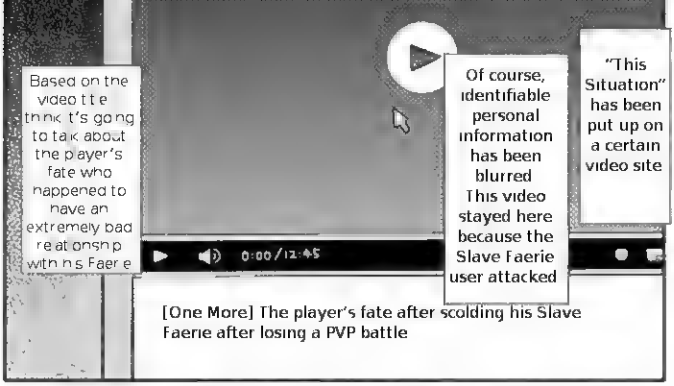
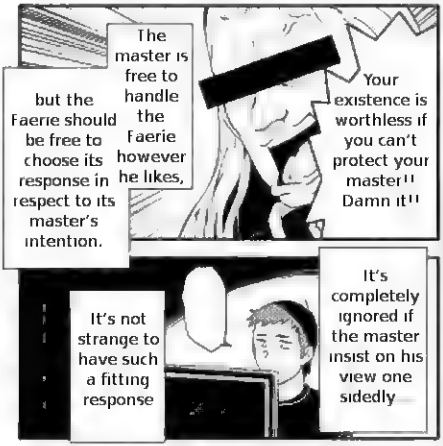
Use Slave Faerie
Good!!

For Faeries to get along with Players on good terms abusive action cannot be used
The Faeries' action forced by some Players were cruel thus they came to be called slaves
Slave Faerie (Kata) literally translates to Slave Faerie (Kanji)
Slave means something similar to work someone hard it serves as a Faeries' passion and Masters' scorn
You Lose
Returning to Normal Space
. . . .
The Faeries very opposed
Huu
As for why the man didn't hit the Faerie, the reason can be seen after the PVP video
Shit
You
Its was un-avoid-able
Retribution for his mistreating of the Faerie was imminent



Based on the video I'll think I'm going to talk about the player's fate who happened to have an extremely bad relationship with his Faerie
0:00/12:45
Of course, identifiable personal information has been blurred This video stayed here because the Slave Faerie user attacked
"This Situation" has been put up on a certain video site
[One More] The player's fate after scolding his Slave Faerie after losing a PVP battle



but the Faerie should be free to choose its response in respect to its master's intention.
The master is free to handle the Faerie however he likes,
Your existence is worthless if you can't protect your master!! Damn it!!

カチ
You are just there to support me!!
You are just a tool!!
Why didn't you protect me there?!!
0:12/12:45

It's not strange to have such a fitting response
It's completely ignored if the master insist on his view one sidedly

And there's a fitting punishment for the crime of breaking that contract
Their vow was exchanged based on a mutual contract

It's a serious matter
What's happening ?
ha
In case the contract is broken, the Faerie thus returns to a clean slate
Of course the Faeries wouldn't calmly return to a clean start
ズズズズ

O
It's just like

A Faerie can abandon a player
Basically as seen in this video
The Faerie's relationship is completely reset
……

Winning seems difficult
That looks very unfavourable for the player
it can decide to terminate the contract
Should the Faerie win the Penalty battle,

I heard that most people that abused their Faeries felt guilty and started treating them better
As time passes, the information about the result of treating the Faeries poorly spreads
That Slave Faerie hasn't been seen since the video was put up
There isn't a person in this world that would say a person can't turn back after going too far.
That alone is enough to build their relation-ship up slowly
The act of fighting together, resting together and eating together without abusing them
There is no need to dote on them
On the Faerie bulletin board, there's a lot of talk about relationship improving gradually by accepting the Faeries' refusal (to commands)
Today, I don't feel like loging in somehow
I'd imagine that's why people who are convinced they are just tools appeared ふざけんなよ!!
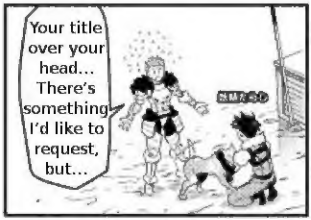
The pet system in net games these days carry out even unreason-able orders
People nowadays won't be able to understand the past system
The [One More]'s Pet System is the direct opposite of that

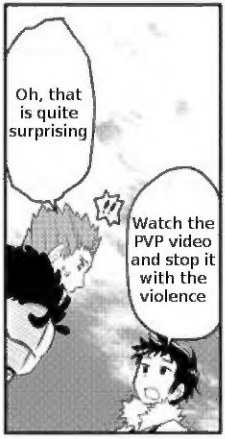
The other day's PVP Player .....
I don't mind, what do you want to consult about?

The next day
Pardon me

Can we talk for a bit?



Your title over your head... There's something I'd like to request, but...



Oh, that is quite surprising
Watch the PVP video and stop it with the violence

I saw another player beat their Faerie when it com-plained,
so I thought it is similar to a beast tamer
According to him, he hadn't had a game with pets that show dissatisfaction and refusal and it's puzzling to him

In trying to fix it, I beat it some more. Certainly it is useless, and thus we ended in a vicious cycle. Although I had thought about stop hitting it...
But in the second half the fight, my Faerie's ego was released, I didn't have the time to hit it.

妖精たらし
And you are free to choose whether to follow the advice or not
No … I don't need any gold
For the advice, would you accept
Gold …?
Only good things will happen when you treat it the same way you'd treat a friend
To call out "Let's go home" when returning to town
Fight together, rest together, eat together during meals
If I follow them and take action
Recently, there has been a compilation of the various related information about Faeries

Thank you, thank you...
Afterwards
I'm glad ...
Won't reconciliation happen a little by little?
By chance, I saw that PVP Player again...
And there wasn't a hint of a resentment aura coming out of his partner
